'Fake officer' cases now total four, not five

Granite City police have discounted a March 15 report, a 14-year-old girl who said a man claiming to be a policeman ordered her into his car and raped her.

Officers said that during their investigation into the incident Tuesday, the girl admitted that she agreed to get into a youth's auto and that he had not claimed to be a policeman. An assault occurred but the family is declining to press charges.

Pending investigation of the report, the case was being treated as possibly related to the rape of a Pontoon Road housewife and three unsuccessful attempts to enter area homes, all by a man dressed as a policeman in the past month.

The girl now says there was no link to the "fake officer" and that she was acquainted with the 18-year-old who attacked her. She says she made up part of the story to explain her late arrival home.

The 32-voice Chancel Choir will sing two anthems, "The Palms" by Faure, assisted by the Junior and Youth choirs, and "To Zion Jesus Came" by Williams.

"Palm Sunday: The Pageantry of Good and Evil" is the sermon topic to be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Paul Surbey. Each worshiper will be given a palm, symbolic of having followed and accepted Jesus as the Christ, the minister said.

Also at the 9 a.m. service, a class of new adult members will be received into the church.

During the 10:30 a.m. worship service, the 1975 confirmation class will be received through the Rite of Confirmation.

Class members are Kim Balough, Lori Bueger, Paul Clinard, Russ Chappel, Lee Galbraith, Keith and Kevin Grady, James Hiller, Michael Hubbard, Beth Lehn, Greg Luehmann, Lorraine Luehmann, Barbara Miller, Linda Modlin, David Oliver, Randy Peach, Mark Spengler, Kevin Tempel, Glenn Tonsor, Sheryl Williams and William Winter.

Immediately after the service, group pictures will be taken of the 1975 class members.

St. John Lutheran services

Confirmation of nine young people will take place at the 10 a.m. Palm Sunday services at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale avenues.

The pastor, the Rev. Samuel Boda, who conducted a public examination of the class last Sunday, will perform the confirmation ceremony, assisted by Seminarian Godfrey (BO) Jarabak.

Members of the spring class are Charles Willis Bates, Chris J. Hiltner, Barbara Lynn Miller, Glenn Thomas Rabon, Pamela Sue Roberts, Bryan

David Schmidtke, Hyet Leslie Settemioir, Steven Marshall Wilson and George Gregory Wyatt.

Robed in white, the class will enter the sanctuary in a processional as the church choir sings Bach's, "Rejoice Ye Pure in Heart." Following the Festival sermon, the choir will sing the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Mrs. Phyllis Jarabak will be at the organ.

Each class member will receive a copy of the RSV Bible as a memento of confirmation from the congregation, together with a certificate. Through the confirmation ceremony and after attending Saturday morning sessions for the past two years members become eligible for participation in the Lord's Holy Supper, the Sacrament of the Altar.

They will receive their first Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday, at 7 p.m., along with other communicants in the congregation.

During Sunday's confirmation service, other communicants members present will be invited to rise to be reconfirmed in the Christian faith. Class pictures will follow at the close of the service.

Class pictures will be taken after the service.

particular job opening. Raymond T. Jones, administrative assistant-personnel, gave a slide presentation in relation to the decrease in student enrollment, showing the sixth-day computation in 1970-71 showed total enrollment of 13,902 students, compared to a total of 13,339 students in January this year, marking a 4.56 decrease.

Totals compiled during the period listed 14,733 students for the 1971-72 year; 14,490 for 1972-73, and 13,948 for 1974-75.

A projected enrollment for the elementary schools alone from the 1974-75 figure of 5,567 through 1980-81 with a total of 6,270, displays a further anticipated decrease of 297 students, it was noted.

Based on a district wide survey, the board has been told the average primary class will have a projected 22 to 23 students and the intermediate (4th, 5th, and 6th grades) will have 24 to 25 pupils per class.

The proposal to transfer about 72 children residing in Kirkpatrick Homes from Marshall School to Webster School beginning this fall, which was presented at the March 4 board meeting, was approved Tuesday night.

Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent of the school district, said letters have been sent from Marshall School to parents of all children living in the area which will be changed. There was no comment received at the school and apparently the parents are satisfied with the change as the children will not have to cross busy Nameoki Road to attend school, officials commented.

Children to be transferred under the proposal are those residing in buildings 100 through 1700 and those in buildings 2200 through 3300, all in Kirkpatrick Homes.

The suggestion to transfer the students was made by the school district's building utilization committee, which cited that Marshall has been the only elementary school showing an increase in student population since the regular meeting in September 1972, with an 8.7 per cent increase noted during the past year.

Webster School enrollment has declined 28.5 per cent during the same time period, officials said.

By adopting the proposed boundary revisions for the 1975-76 school year, Marshall School will have about 418 students while the Webster enrollment will be about 372.

Board president Donald Stucke led a discussion on an apparent conflict between the two high schools on policy procedure in relation to the use of the Memorial gymnasium and football stadium currently located on the South High School campus.

Both principals, Gilbert Wastley of North High School, and James Dumont of South High School, spoke during the meeting, presenting to the board grievances which had been brought to their attention by students in conjunction with the facilities.

After discussion of the problems, Monroe Worthen, board member, suggested each principal contact their student councils to plan a program by which students may make suggestions to solve discussion

Stricter mobile home regulation

A new Madison County Zoning Ordinance, which will allow modular home construction but which restricts the placement of mobile homes, will go into effect for unincorporated areas of the county April 1.

The new zoning document was approved by the Madison County Board at its regular meeting yesterday morning.

The new plan allows placement of modular homes in the county for the first time. Modular homes and mobile homes must be placed in a special zoning category, R-6, and areas must be five acres or larger to receive an R-6 rating.

Mobile homes also may be placed at other locations, but only by a special use permit, which is restricted to one year. The new ordinance does not affect existing structures or mobile homes for a period of five years after enactment.

After the five-year period, units and structures not meeting the new guidelines must receive five-year extensions or be made to conform.

The exceptions are existing mobile homes or structures which already have a special use permit, and the new ordinance will not affect the terms of the existing permit.

in a fair and equal manner to both schools.

Suggested proposals from both schools are to be submitted to the board for further discussion before a revised policy proposal will be adopted.

Many special use permits have been granted to mobile home owners for their lifetimes. It was noted that officials of the county building inspector's office are visiting several modular home manufacturers in an attempt to draft specific minimum standards which must be met before a modular home will be approved as safe.

The County Board added fees for the inspection and building permits for modular homes to the existing fee schedules. The new ordinance notes that greater restrictions than the existing land and building controls, unincorporated areas, the new ordinance will govern.

5 in Venice school race

A five-way race for two Board of Education posts in Venice School District 3 had developed today as two more candidates filed nominating petitions prior to the filing deadline tomorrow.

Filing for the April 12 school elections will end Friday at the close of regular business hours at the school administration offices in Granite City, Madison and Venice. Each of the Quad-City school districts is to elect two board members in the April 12 balloting. All incumbents in the three districts are candidates for re-election with the exception of A. L. "Pete" Metcalf of Granite City District 9.

Metcalf has obtained petitions, however, and is expected to file before the deadline tomorrow. Newly-filed candidates at Venice are Charles Burger, 1034 Third St., and John Boushara, 433 Lincoln Ave. Others who have filed petitions of nomination are Fred Rumpf and Willie Johnson, both incumbents board members, and Eddie Lee Salmonds of Eagle Park Acres.

There is no opposition thus far for the two Madison School Board posts. The only candidates who have filed as of today are David Niskelley and Willie Walker, both incumbents whose terms expire this year.

In Granite City District 9, L. Monroe Worthen, incumbent, is among three candidates who have filed for two board posts. Others who have filed are Thomas G. Miosky and Stan Welch.

Three others have obtained petitions for filing, but had not yet filed the petitions this morning. They include Metcalf, Stephen Salich and C. "Mike" Michaeloff Jr.

City honors Venice team

The achievement of the Venice High School Red Devils basketball team in capturing the Class A state championship occupied a prominent place at the Venice City Council meeting Tuesday evening. The team had returned here from Champaign two days earlier.

"Nothing since the great flood of 1903 has put Venice on the map like our Red Devils basketball team," Mayor William M. Ebersold told the council.

A resolution praising the accomplishments of the team, cheerleaders, Coach Richard Essington, and Clarence Hand, Stanley Lynch and Kenneth Perkins, assistant coaches, was passed by the aldermen.

The council also approved preparation of four large metal signs in red and white—the school colors—reading, "Welcome to Venice, Ill., home of the Red Devils, state Class A basketball champions."

The signs will be placed at the main entrances to the city. Mayor Ebersold noted that the team and coaches are going to Springfield on Monday to be introduced at noon to the Illinois state legislature by State Rep. Joseph Lucco of Edwardsville.

He said he wants as many council members as possible to attend.

The team will be honored at a mid-April dinner by the Madison-Venice Rotary Club. Another dinner saluting the athletes is being arranged for this spring by school officials.

South students win honors

Annette Tarpoft, daughter of Mrs. Olga Tarpoft, 2130 Clark St., and senior at Granite City High School South, won a first place in oratorical declamation at the sectional speech tournament held in Wood River during the weekend. She now will advance to the state finals which will be held at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., April 4 and 5.

This is the third consecutive year that Miss Tarpoft has participated in the state finals. In 1973 she placed fourth in original comedy with her own selection "Baba" and in 1974 she placed fourth in serious interpretation with a presentation from "Crown Matrimonial."

Greg Terrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy H. Terrell, and Leon Scroggins Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Scroggins, will compete in the sectional tournament in one-act plays at Wood River Saturday.

The two South students won second place in the play contest at the district tournament held in Wood River during the weekend. The boys did an original one-act play "Out of the Flying Pan."

Scroggins and Terrell were named to the All-Star District Cast in addition to their play taking second place. The top three plays advanced to the sectional tournament.

"Out of the Flying Pan," directed by Mrs. Beverly Scroggins of the South Speech department, is a comedy satire on modern diplomacy.

Ron Pennel is the coach of GCHS South debate teams.

Innocent verdict

Boyd Catron, 58, St. Louis, was declared innocent of aggravated battery by Chief Criminal Judge John Gilchoff yesterday in Madison County Circuit Court. The innocent verdict followed a two-day trial. # Women of the Americas convention

Among the delegates from 22 countries attending the congress of Business and Professional Women of the Americas convention in Mexico City, Mexico, were three members of the Granite City BPW Club.

Participating in the five-day series of meetings from here were Miss Annellen Smith, local club president; Mrs. Rosemary Baseden, president-elect; and Mrs. Verma Lengyel, a past president.

The conference was convened as part of International Women's Year, a year-long observance proclaimed by the United Nations.

A resolution designating 1975 as International Women's Year was adopted by the UN General Assembly on Dec. 18, 1972, upon recommendation of the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women.

Several outstanding speakers addressed the conference, the Granite City women reported. Among those featured on the program was Judge Sarah Hughes, the first woman federal judge in Texas. She is a past national president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women of the United States, a former teacher, Texas state legislator and district judge.

Judge Hughes also has served as first vice-president of the International Federation of BPW and has received many honors for her life-long devotion to the pursuit of equal rights for all persons, including awards from George Washington University, Zonta Club, Federal Bar, Texas Press Club and East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Delegates also heard Margaret Hickey, magazine editor and businesswoman, who has combined several careers with community activism and international concern. Also a past president of the National BPW Federation of the U.S., she is the current public affairs editor of the Ladies Home Journal.

An attorney and member of the Missouri Bar Association,

Miss Hickey has been appointed by six U.S. presidents to various national posts. Currently, she serves as chairman of the Voluntary Foreign Aid Committee of the Agency for International Development, U.S. State Department, and on the Executive Committee of the International Council of Social Work.

Other speakers were Dr. Elba Kybal, a native of Argentina and current Economic Integration Advisor for the Organization of American States (OAS) in Washington, D.C. She is former senior economic affairs officer for the United Nations, OAS and Federal Reserve Bank in New York and a member of the Potomac BPW Club of Washington, D.C.

Aurora Fernandez, president of the Association of Mexican College Women, also addressed the convention. Widely known for her efforts in representing women in labor arbitration, she is dedicated to improving conditions for the elderly, establishing day care centers and improving women's educational opportunities.

Delegates to the BPW Women of the Americas convention represented the countries of Argentina, Bahamas, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Curacao, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Guayana, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, Mexico, Panama, Peru, Trinidad and Tobago, Venezuela and the United States.

Their professional qualifications included engineers, surgeon-obstetrician, psychologist, attorneys, teachers, insurance company owner, stateswoman, university professor, hospital controller and juvenile court worker.

YOUTH HOSPITALIZED
Carl Bradford, 17, of 2921 Willow Ave., was examined at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 4:35 p.m. Monday for headache and dizziness and was transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis. He has been released. Bradford was a passenger in an auto which hit a broken marble at Nameski Road and St. Clair Avenue at 2 a.m. Monday. His head struck the car's windshield breaking the glass.

Also delegates were the Dominican Republic's Under Secretary of State for Health and Social Assistance, the Assistant Secretary of Education for Venezuela and the assistant public affairs director for the Caribbean.

It was explained that when the United Nations wishes the international community to concentrate its attention on a particular issue, which it considers of utmost importance, it usually designates a "Year" to intensify the action required at both the international and national levels.

International Women's year thus was designated to review and evaluate progress made, specifically in the areas of promotion of equality between men and women; full integration of women in the total development effort; and recognition of the importance of women's increased contribution to the strengthening of world peace.

"Equality, Development and Peace," theme of the Year, hopefully will stimulate new initiatives and set in motion dynamic action programs to advance the status of women all over the world, the conferees were told.

The Year is intended to be one in which both men and women will participate actively in all areas and walks of life, re-evaluating traditional sex roles and attitudes which have hindered the full attainment by women of their human rights and right to full human development, the convention leaders stressed.

An equally important aim of the Year is to increase the participation of women in their national, regional and international politics. Through this greater participation it is hoped that women will be able to make a significant contribution to promotion of world peace and the development process. The United Nations resolution states,

1st Baptist to start revival

First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, will host a series of revival services beginning Sunday through Friday, March 28, with Ted Padgett, evangelist, from Fort Worth, Tex., and Elvin Kendall, music director of the local church, in charge.

The Rev. Marvin Peters, host pastor, said the services will be held at 7:30 each evening. Sunday's programs will be at 10:40 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Nursery care will be available at each service.

A graduate of Carson-Newman College in Tennessee, the evangelist now attends Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He has a Reserve Navy commission as a Navy chaplain and pastored churches in Tennessee and Texas.

The Rev. Padgett, 32, is the author of two books — "Evangelism in America Since 1700," by Daniel Padgett 1973, and "The Bubble of Life," by Art-Pop Publishers 1974.

IBM computers at Tri-City

New sales slips received by customers at the Tri-City Grocery Co., Bellemore Village store are actually mini-computer printouts which identify each item purchased, give its price and show if it is taxed. The slips also list the quantity of each item purchased and can show the amount of deposit for returnable bottles.

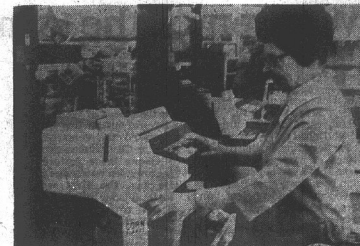

The new system was installed by IBM (International Business Machines).

The name of the product, including the brand name and price, flash through the computer in a fraction of a second and appear on a small screen in front of the customer.

Rather than just "grocery," "meat" or "produce," most of the items are listed on the customers slip by actual brand names.

Harshbarger and Oxley became involved in an argument, police said, and the two men went outside the tavern. Springfield and this is the first response I have received," Mayor Ebersoldt said.

A resolution was passed designating a general election on Tuesday, April 15, for one alderman in each of the city's four wards for four-year terms, and establishing the polling places.

The following polling places were designated by the council: Ward One, 100F Hall, Second and Granville streets; Ward Two, St. Mark's Church basement, Sixth and Lincoln streets; Ward Three, 1051 Douglas St.; and Ward Four, 109 Weaver St.

The polling places will be open on election day from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Hugh Hairston announced that Mrs. Margaret Bush Wilson, national president of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) will visit the city hall and meet with the council at 7 p.m. on Thursday, April 10. She will then speak at the Bethel AME Church in Venice at 8 p.m.

Mayor Ebersoldt announced that police examinations will be given on Tuesday, April 1, and that applications are available from the police department.

The council approved the addition of Ed Foley and Mrs. Margaret Lee to the city's Community Development Committee. "This committee is doing a great job. Foley, the council, and the committee will meet soon and discuss plans for the erection of a Community Center on property at Bissell Street and Mercedia Avenue. I feel this project is coming close to reality and will be a great addition to the city," Ebersoldt said.

The mayor announced there will be no City Organization meeting in April. A reorganization meeting will be held in May, he said.

Fifth Ward said that he objected to "piecemeal" solutions to drainage problems and that the city should prepare an "overall program that would provide drainage, curbs and guttering throughout the city."

Nonn said he believed such a project could be financed with motor fuel tax funds.

"If we continue these little piecemeal jobs we're just kidding the people along," Nonn said. "Its time we prepare an overall program to take care of all the problems. There's 14 aldermen on this council and I know ten of them have the same kind of problems in their wards."

Alderman Emerald Dawes of the Seventh Ward protested that "the kind of program Walter (Nonn) has in mind would take three years to realize. These people need something done now."

A woman member of the audience protested that all of the poor drainage is not alone; Franklin Avenue, but also in the intersecting streets of the area. "What is our tax money going for?" she asked. "The water gets higher every year... at the rate we're going our grandchildren won't even see curbs and guttering. They keep studying the matter and then put the studies away." Council members approved unanimously a motion by Coleman that the engineering study be made.

The council also heard a complaint from a resident near Namecki Ditch that the flow of open sewage into the ditch because of a pipe installed by the street department is causing a health hazard. He said if something isn't done about the problem soon, he intends to call the Illinois Department of Public Health. Coleman asked Street Superintendent Lionel Portell why it was necessary to install the pipe, and Portell replied that the pipe was required to relieve an overflow area that was causing sewage to back into homes. Portell added that sanitary sewers are being overloaded with storm drainage because of broken sewer lines, sodded ground and a high water table.

"We're going to have problems like this until we can get the stormwater out of the sanitary sewers," Portell commented. "We have sanitary sewers in the area (Namecki) that are leaking like a sieve."

'Memories are made of this,' all-conquering Venice players happily conclude

Pleasant memories are accumulating rapidly for the Venice High School basketball team, new Class A state champion.

The 160-student high school proved itself best of all 750-enrollment-or-less schools in Illinois during last week's competition that eliminated eight teams at super-sectionals and seven more at the "elite eight" finals in Champaign.

Attaining a brilliant 32-2 record, the team was welcomed home with a mammoth parade and outdoor gathering Sunday, and the players were honored at a student assembly Monday.

Many more tributes are being scheduled.

Among other events will be a dinner honoring the Venice team. Details currently are being worked out for this occasion.

State Rep. Joe Lucco of Edwardsville, a former high school basketball coach, has invited Supt. Robert Vickers, the coaching staff and players to be present on the Illinois House floor at noon Monday, March 24, to meet House Speaker William Redmond and other legislators.

At that time, a resolution citing the team's achievement will be introduced for consideration by the representatives.

Prepared by Rep. Lucco, the resolution is cosponsored by other Madison County legislators, including Horace Calvo of Granite City and Everett Steele of Glen Carbon. The document will be read while the team is present.

A similar resolution is being prepared for the Illinois Senate by Sen. Sam Vadalabene.

At Monday's assembly, Red Devil Jeff Corrie commented, "My only regret is that I will graduate before the 1975-76 season begins."

"I'd give anything to be a member of next year's team, because with the talent available to us, we're going to be Number One again next year."

Supt. Vickers added to Corrie's remarks by telling the student gathering, "Let's capitalize on our state honors and make Venice High School first in all respects, as well as in basketball."

Those telephoning school officials should call CORRAL LIQUORS, PHONE 451-9116, 3304 N. HANCOCK RD.

offices this week were greeted by secretaries as follows: "Good morning, Venice School District. Home of the state champions."

Corrie is one of two seniors among the current team's starting five. The other is all-state player Mike Henry.

Henry, 6-6, weighs 132 pounds. Corrie, 5-8, is a 166-pounder.

The other starters are Juniors and could form the nucleus for a devastating team in 1975-76. They are James Crowder, 6-2, 210 pounds, all-slayer Reggie Gardner, 5-11, 138, and James Turner, 5-10 and 157.

The other graduating seniors are Mike Logan and Algie Crawford.

Crawford, 5-11, 154, joined with other Red Devils in displaying unusually sharp free throw shooting ability in the championship game, won by a 65-46 margin over Timothy Christian High School of Elmhurst.

Logan played a prominent role in the state tournament, substituting for Henry and others on a number of occasions.

He is 5-11 and weighs 132 pounds.

Juniors on the 1974-75 squad include Tim Walker, 6-0, 157, and 6-3 Bernie Woodrome, a 155-pounder.

Current sophomores are

Larry Arnold, 5-10, 167, and Venice Govan, 5-7, 130.

And the Red Devils this season included a freshman, 5-8 Ricky Salmond, a 119-pound athlete expected to grow in height and weight.

SPONTANEOUS CELEBRATION which broke out on the floor of the University of Illinois Assembly Hall moments after Venice High School won the state Class A basketball title. Venice fans poured onto the floor to offer congratulations to the players (in white uniforms).

Outdoor track competition for Warrior team next week

Warrior trackmen of Granite City High School South will compete tomorrow in the Illinois Open Invitational at the St. Louis Armory but track mentor Don Miller notes, "Tomorrow's meet will only be a practice session in distance running for us."

With the Warriors regular season schedule to start March 29 at Champaign, heading the more than 100 South track and field men are 13 returning lettermen led by last year's record-shattering senior, Dwayne Terry.

"Last year," recalls Miller, "Terry ran the fastest mile of his career in the Southwestern Conference relays."

A member of the medley relay squad at the meet, Terry toured the mile run in four minutes and 29 seconds to help give the squad a record-setting overall time of 11:00.1. Other members were Dave Brown, Dave Ruebhausen and Jim Hall.

The four runners then finished second in the two-mile relay event with a time of 9:17.3, less than a second off the school record.

All of them but Ruebhausen, who has graduated, are members of the 1975 South track team.

Miller expects this year's team to be strong in distance running, fairly equal with competitors in the shot put and discus throwing, and weak in dash events.

Senior Tom Schooley is the squad's only veteran sprinter and hurdles athlete. Returning also from last year's team are seniors: Greg Ahlers, half-mile run; Dave Brown, half-mile run; Sam Nesbitt, and Tom Boyd, discus.

Junior lettermen returning are: Joe Ward, 440-yard run; Doug Hartman, shot put; and Frank Holmes, Randy Presswood and Don Meagher.

Dana Wallace, a sophomore, also lettered last season.

Gitcho to help wrestle Korean national team

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will host an exhibition wrestling match between a group of St. Louis area wrestlers and the Korean national wrestling team at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 5, in the gym of Edwardsville High School.

The Koreans will face some of the area's best wrestlers, including Greg Holmes, a 116-pound wrestler from SIUE; and Terrell Williams, a 142-pounder from Forest Park Community College who is one of the nation's top junior college wrestlers.

Former SIUE standout Jan Gitcho, a 126-pounder from Granite City who won worldwide acclaim in the Russian Nationals last year, will participate, as will SIUE's two-time all-American, Mike Taylor, a 150-pounder from St. Louis.

The Korean team is made up of that nation's best college-age and older wrestlers.

Tickets for the event are $2 each and can be obtained at the SIUE athletic office or at the gate. Further information is available by contacting Gordon Anderson, SIUE assistant wrestling coach, at 692-3986.

Hurlers booster South's outlook

Inclement weather has hampered thus far the Granite City High School South baseball team's practice in preparation for the home opener Monday against Resana.

The Warrior line will take to the diamond at Wilson Park today in only its second day of workouts.

Noting the team's 17-11 overall record of last year, including a district title, Coach Conrad "Babe" Champion feels the 1975 South team has perhaps one of the best pitching staffs in the area, with 13 athletes ready to take to the mound.

Heading the list of hurlers is senior Greg Terrell, last year's winningest pitcher with a 6-1 record. Returning also are seniors Ray Smith and Kirk Champion. All are right-handed.

Ying also for starting pitcher assignments are seniors Bob Hutchings and Larry York, both left-handers, and senior John Pritchard, a righthander.

Flyers at state along with defending champs

The Pirates of Maywood (Proviso East), who devastated the hopes of previously-unbeaten Franklin Park (East Leyden) in Tuesday's super-sectional, will lead a field of eight supercharged finalists including East St. Louis into the Assembly Hall in Champaign this weekend for the 4th annual Illinois High School Association (IHSAA) boys' state final basketball tournament for Class AA schools.

Joining Chicago Hts. (Bloom.) as team the Pirates beat for the title last year, as the only repeat performers from 1974, Proviso East seeks to become only the fifth school in the 66 years of state tournament competition to claim a third championship.

Quarterfinal pairings will present some interesting battles, beginning Friday at 12:15 p.m. with a pair of games, to be followed that evening with another pair beginning at 7 p.m.

The quarterfinal schedule will pit together: Chicago (Wendell Phillips) (29-1) vs. Waukegan (22-7); Game 2 — Rockford (Auburn) (29-9) vs. Peoria (Richwoods) (29-1); Game 3 — East St. Louis (22-6) vs. Bloomington (H.S.) (29-4); and Game 4 — Maywood (Proviso East) (25-4) vs. Chicago Hts. (Bloom.) (22-9).

Two of the eight finalists are making their first visits to Champaign — Chicago Public League champion Wendell Phillips and powerful Peoria (Richwoods) — but for Bloomington and the East St. Louis Flyers it may seem like the first visit for fans in those communities.

Guelker to study in Brazil

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville athletic director and head soccer coach Bob Guelker has been named to head a group of Illinois collegiate soccer coaches on a two-week trip to Sao Paulo, Brazil.

The announcement was made by Frank Longo of Quincy College, the state representative of the Partners of America Organization. Partners of America, together with the Football Association of Sao Paulo, will sponsor the trip.

Joining Guelker will be John McKenzie of Western Illinois University and Steve Janczak of Lewis College.

The group leaves Saturday and will observe and study Brazil's top professional teams in training sessions and game competition.

Among the teams to be studied is Santos, the club

Three other potential hurlers just reported after completing a season of baseball — juniors Randy Leyerla, Rick Fancher and Stan Stajdhar.

Stated for catching duty is senior Brian Silver, who did not letter last year.

The squad includes: seniors Mike Gagech, shortstop; Jim Kadia, Paul Mashall and Mark Greenwald, outfielders; and junior Jeff Scarborough, first baseman.

Senior Vernon Lockridge and sophomore Randy Smith are second baseman candidates.

Senior Kevin O'Shea is the third baseman, and a relief catcher is junior Keith Moran.

Champion said he and assistant coach John Modica are pleased with the turnout of more than 100 boys who came out for the team. He expects "one of the best baseball seasons fans have seen here in a long time."

Bloomington last appeared in the state tournament 45 years ago, while East St. Louis last appeared 31 years ago. Both are under the direction of first-year coaches.

Tom Hodgson is at Bloomington, while Coy Nunn has taken over from veteran Louis "Pick" Dehner, and will be out to provide this area with a second state championship this year. Venice won last weekend's Class A title impressively.

The combined record of the eight Class AA (751 enrollment and larger) survivors is 194-41, topped by the 29-1 marks of Chicago (Wendell Phillips) and Richwoods. They could meet in the first semifinal game Saturday.

The combined enrollment of the eight finalists is nearly five times as great as the total city population of Venice — 24,715. Venice's population is 5,390.

Tickets, available to the general public, will go on sale for each day beginning at 8 a.m. at the Assembly Hall Box Office — only if participating schools in each session return unsold tickets from their allotment. Session tickets are priced at $3 each. Only two of the previous 54 sessions of Class AA warfare have been soldouts, but attendance records are expected to be established this time.

East St. Louis beat Oley 89-77 at Carbondale Tuesday to advance to Champaign.

Mat Cougars end season

The 1974-75 wrestling season officially ended for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville during the weekend as SIUE's three qualifiers were ousted from the NCAA Division I Championships in Princeton, N.J.

Senior Larry Pruitt, a 134-pounder, lost a 7-1 decision in the first round to Lloyd Ford of California State. Since Pruitt's opponent failed to reach the quarterfinals, Pruitt did not qualify for the wrestlingbacks (losers' bracket).

At 190 pounds, junior Frank Savagnago pinned his first foe, Al Manning of Ball State, in 2:29. Although Savagnago lost his next match, a 10-6 decision to the No. 2-seeded individual, Laurent Soucie of Wisconsin, Savagnago went on to the wrestlingbacks as Soucie reached the quarterfinals.

In the wrestlingbacks Friday, Savagnago pinned Joe Jones of Oklahoma State at 5:51 but then lost to Bill Orwig of the Air Force Academy 6-4.

Cougar Mike Taylor, a senior, suffered a similar fate. He lost a close match in the opening round to Lee Kamp of Wisconsin, seeded No. 3, on a referee's decision after the match would up in a 5-5 tie after overtime.

In wrestlingbacks, he dived Jim Bombrowski of Northwestern 4-1 before losing to Greg Ziebart of Oregon, 9-7. All three SIUE wrestlers qualified for the Division I tournament by winning third or better in Division II championships, held the week before. All three are two-time all-Americans.

Taylor was third in the Division II tournament and wound up the year with a 34-7 record. Savagnago and Pruitt were second in their weight classes. Pruitt finished the season with a 22-7 mark while Savagnago was 22-9. As a team, the Cougars finished second behind champion Northern Iowa.

Proposed auto race track law dropped

A proposal drafted by State Rep. Monroe L. Flinn to create an Illinois Motor Vehicle Racing Law was discarded by the General Assembly at Springfield. He had planned to introduce it at that time but decided not to in the belief that much of its intent already is being achieved.

The proposal would have given Illinois power to regulate safety standards at motor sport tracks throughout the state. The Department of Transportation would have issued licenses and determined whether auto tracks were in compliance with the law. The department would have been instructed to assure that safety regulations will meet prior to the issuance of a license.

Rep. Flinn, a representative of the 57th District and a Granite City Steel employee, initiated the proposal last fall following a spectacular 1974 crash at St. Louis International Raceway near Madison. Two spectators were killed and others were injured.

He said in October when the proposal was drafted that, in its form then, the proposal was restrictive. "It gives the department great powers to regulate the motor sport industry," he conceded.

Rep. Flinn cited Section Eight as an example: "The rules and regulations shall prescribe the construction or character of protective devices designed to protect participants in and spectators attending any such race or exhibition, including, but not limited to—

"Matters of track construction and condition, rails, pit facilities, lighting, inspection of vehicles and equipment, physical conditions of drivers, fire protection and medical and ambulance facilities, and generally governing the conduct of all motor vehicle races and exhibitions of motor vehicle driving skill to be held within this state."

He told the Press-Record in October that his proposal had been drawn up in the hope that it would be thought-provoking and draw "input from the public and from those involved with the sport."

From Springfield yesterday Rep. Flinn told the Press-Record, "We have received such a tremendous amount of correspondence from the general public voicing opinions on this proposal, that we feel that we do not need a racing safety law in the state."

"It has created a great deal of interest," he continued, "and I think the various insurance agencies which issue safety standards to tracks will begin enforcing those standards in a more strict manner."

He also cited several auto racing tracks in the state that have initiated or improved

Rapoffs in ice hockey tourney

Chris Rapoff, a sophomore at GCHS South, and Andy Rapoff, an eighth grade student at Coolidge Junior High, will compete this weekend with the St. Louis Midget Blazer Ice Hockey Club in an attempt to give the club a regional championship.

The St. Louis club will participate at the Castle Oak Ice Rink, St. Louis, Saturday and Sunday along with other 14-16-year-old athletes from seven states for the title.

The regional victor earns the right to compete in the U.S. National tournament April 5-6 at Fort Wayne, Ind.

The two local youths began their ice hockey competition with the Granite City Amateur Hockey Association and joined the Midget Blazers last year.

'Floating' judo mat constructed

The Tri-City Area YMCA in Granite City, has just completed construction of a "floating" judo mat. The Granite City Optimist Club arranged for financing of the project.

Due to increases in the cost of materials, the cost went above the allocation and completion of the project was made possible through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Schnellman, Tony Aiello, Robert Roberts, Mike McGee, M. H. Wolfe Construction Co. and Midwest Rubber Reclaiming Co.

Purpose of the mat is to facilitate the teaching of judo and reduce the possibility of injuries.

The 20 by 32 foot mat almost entirely occupies the judo and wrestling room.

To construct the mat, heavy the floor and then framed with 2x4 boards and covered with 3/4-inch plywood so that no wood touches the floor.

The entire platform "floats" on the tires. Next, one-inch resilient tumbling mats were used to cover the wood, and everything was tied down with a special heavy-duty canvas cover.

Len Fuchs, a first-degree black belt and the judo instructor, commented, "It's almost a pleasure falling now."

Those interested may attend for open workouts on Friday evenings beginning tomorrow. Instructional classes also are offered.

25-year salute tonight to wrestling coach Bill Schmitt

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
A deep, powerful voice which can make a varsity heavyweight shudder and banish forever an uninvited visitor from a high school gymnasium emits from a man, usually surrounded and frequently obscured by perspiring, half-naked athletes.

Source of the voice is a deceptively slim man with a consistently worried expression, whose once bright red hair is now generously mixed with grey.

The thunderous utterances have echoed and bounced through the South High School gym during wrestling practice for 25 years, but seldom are heard once competition is under way.

Head Wrestling Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt, whose admirers are torn between the diminutive "Smitty" and "Red," has given Granite City a quarter-century of his life.

He has brought a state championship home. He has recorded an unbroken win record unsurpassed in Illinois high school history and almost anywhere else.

His influence has inspired and guided hundreds of Granite City youths, who have walked away from their high school careers with great memories and the experience of being "a winner."

Tributes to Coach Schmitt will be heard this evening from close friends, fellow coaches, former students and civic leaders at a testimonial dinner at South High School cafeteria.

Not all the testimonials will be filled with unrestricted plaudits however. Several of Coach Schmitt's co-workers and friends are noted for ribbing the normally quiet-spoken "Red" and are gifted at recalling humorous events from past years.

There were some humorous moments, too. They also are expected to be recounted in detail.

"Smitty" has achieved a formidable record in coaching high school wrestling, perhaps the best record in the United States.

Garnering one Illinois High School Association state championship, his Warrior matmen have captured top honors in all but two sectional championship meets.

And the Granite City squad has preserved the oldest, longest and only perfect record of earning a state berth every year since the Illinois mat championships began in 1927.

A milestone came in the 1964-65 school year when the Warrior grapplers returned home from the University of Illinois with the first state championship for this Downstate wrestling stronghold.

Granite City tied Reavis of Oaklawn, a suburb of Chicago, that year for the state title, the first time in the history of the tournament.

That season had started auspiciously with Smitty recording his 200th dual meet victory as a coach.

On Dec. 22, 1964, the Warriors traveled to Mehlville (Mo.) High School and met defeat for the first time in 133 dual contests.

The previous Missouri opponent to beat the Warriors was Normandy in 1954, and the 1956 Belleville team was the last in Illinois for many years.

There were few dry eyes among the Warrior supporters

UNRUFFLED CONTEMPLATION. Caught in a typical "Smitty" pose, Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt of the Warrior grapplers has appeared this way to high school wrestling fans for the past 25 years, whether his matmen were winning by 10 points or down by five. He will be honored tonight at a testimonial dinner at South High.

and athletes when the Mehlville bell was tolled to celebrate the victory.

One pair of eyes, however, belonged to Smitty, whose pragmatic approach to winning and whose ability to inspire his wrestlers to greater incentive led to the state championship later that year.

As a high school student at Alton, Coach Schmitt was an outstanding wrestler and national YMCA champion.

He coached the sport for three years at Alton's Western Military Academy before coming to Granite City at the start of the 1950-51 season. In addition to his widely-recognized coaching expertise, Smitty is considered by his contemporaries as the state's foremost wrestling historian and record-keeper.

"Mister Wrestling" was installed as president of the National Wrestling Coaches Association in 1973-74 and has served as an ITHSA official for many years.

Tonight's testimonial dinner only marks Coach Schmitt's 25th year in Granite City. For a man like him, it's only the beginning.

MR. AND MRS. RONNIE ZIMMERMAN, whose wedding was solemnized at the Second Baptist Church. The bride is the former Miss Sherrel Rae Barton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley E. Barton Sr., 2310 W. 23rd St.

Sherrel Barton becomes Mrs. Ronnie Zimmerman

Miss Sherrel Rae Barton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley E. Barton Sr., 2310 W. 23rd St., became the bride of Ronnie John Zimmerman, a son of Mrs. Christine Zimmerman, 1633 Delmar Ave., and the late Paul Zimmerman Sr., in a candlelight ceremony on Feb. 1 at the Second Baptist Church. Burning tapers in branched candelabra, accented with greenery, illuminated the aisle and bouquets of mums, red roses and foliage adorned the altar.

The Rev. Eugene Dutton officiated at the double ring ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Dennis Astorian sang "Time in a Bottle," "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face," "My Sweet Lady" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Betty Grote.

Mr. Barton escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She chose a long southern belle-style gown of Chantilly lace, featuring a scalloped neckline, fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. Pearls and iridescent sequins, creating a rose pattern, accented her dress.

The flowing skirt of lace tiers, enhanced with a straight lace panel at the front, swept gently into a chapel train. She wore a lace cap to hold in place a mantilla veil, bordered in lace, and she held a bouquet of red silk roses and pink carnations, centered with a single white rose.

Mrs. Debbie Yeigh of Colorado Springs, Colo., was matron of honor. She selected a deep violet knit gown designed with a roll neckline and loosely fitted bodice. Cotton lace and daisies defined the natural waist above the long skirt.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Sue Mull, Miss Gail Lewis and Miss Karen Zimmerman, a niece of the groom, chose identically styled gowns in blue, pink and green.

All wore lace caps in a rose pattern, embellished with pearls and sequins and carried lace fan bouquets, centered with a silk rose in a color to match their dresses.

Christine Zimmerman, a niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore a yellow knit frock similar in style to the bridesmaids' dresses. She held a basket of red rose petals.

The bride's brother, Timothy Barton, served as ringbearer. Michael Harbin attended the groom as best man. Don Mull, Tom Druhe, Harley Barton Jr., a brother of the bride, Dan Antonovich and Bob Campbell completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Mrs. Barton, mother of the bride, was attired in a blue gown, floor length, made with a fitted bodice and long lace trimmed sleeves and complemented with white accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Zimmerman, selected a long lavender knit dress with chiffon sleeves, tightly cuffed at the wrists, and silver accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses.

A reception was held at the VFW Hall immediately following the ceremony. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Withers and Ray Yeigh, all from Colorado Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Don Laswell, Salem, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Zimmerman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zimmerman, all of Chicago. All are relatives of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brase, Florissant, Mo.; Mrs. Alice Peters of Highland; and Mrs. Wilma McDonald from St. Jacob.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School South. The groom presently is employed as a truck driver at Tarlas Foods Inc., Madison.

The newlyweds have purchased a home and now reside in Granite City.

MRS. RONN NOWELL, the former Miss Carol Sue Hagnauer, whose wedding took place at St. Joseph Catholic Church. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hagnauer, 2708 Saratoga St. (Groomsman Photograph)

Carol Hagnauer and Ronn Nowell are wed

Bouquets of white gladioli and blue iceberg pom poms in tall urns, with burning tapers in tiered candelabra and aisle standards, each festooned with smilac and white satin, ribbons, provided the setting for the wedding at St. Joseph Catholic Church on March 15 of Miss Carol Sue Hagnauer and Ronn Nowell.

The Rev. Henry Mack performed the double ring ceremony at 6:30 in the evening. A reception followed at the Engineers Hall.

Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hagnauer, reside at 2708 Saratoga St. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nowell, Rural Route One, Staunton, Ill.

As the guests were escorted to their seats by Jim Frizzo and Tom Baker, a program of nuptial selections was sung by Mrs. Vicki Simpson. The soloist, accompanied by guitarists Larry Smalle and Jon Grindstaff, sang "A Time for Us," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Follow Me" and "Colour My World."

Mrs. Clea Judd presided at the organ for soloist Don Mathenia, who sang "The Wedding Song."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a white organza gown fashioned in a princess silhouette.

Belgium lace, etched with tiny Venise lace floral motifs with pearl centers, created a bib effect on the bodice. Cluny lace enhanced the high neckline and formed the ruffled cuffs on the long, slender lace sleeves.

The graceful skirt, extending backward into a full sweep train, was encircled at the hemline with a deep border of Belgium lace. The bejeweled Venise motifs were scattered at random on the skirt.

Her fingertip veil of imported bridal illusion, bordered with scalloped lace, was secured to a camellia hat of Chantilly. She carried an offside cascade of white roses, baby's breath, white Elegance carnations and camellia foliage.

The maid of honor, Miss Vicki Bollinger, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Dolores Talley, Miss Mary Beth Brewer

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hagnauer selected a formal length gown of aqua quiana. The groom's mother, Mrs. Nowell, appeared in a long mint green knit frock. Both wore corsages of white roses.

The rehearsal dinner for members of the bridal party was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hagnauer.

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Nowell presently are on a wedding trip to Tan-Tar-A resort at Lake of the Ozarks, Mo.

Party at Colonial Haven

Residents of Colonial Haven Nursing Home were guests of a Tupperware party, the first of its kind held in the home. Kathy Buckingham hosted the party at which games were played and prizes were awarded. Another party is planned May 23, to be hosted by one of the residents.

Charge 2 in burglary at Hagnauer home

Two Quad-City area men were served with warrants Tuesday charging burglary, bringing to three the number arrested in connection with a burglary Saturday night at the home of Madison County Democratic Chairman Nelson Hagnauer.

At 2:50 p.m. Tuesday, Robert L. Porter, 17, of 707 Twenty-seventh St., surrendered himself to officers at the police station and was served with a burglary warrant.

Earl S. Davis, 32, of 1423 Third St., Madison, walked into the Madison County Sheriff's Department two hours later. A warrant was served on him and he was brought to the Granite City Jail.

Both men appeared in court here and bond was set at $12,000 each.

The bond for Danny Cobb, 24, of 1239 Nineteenth St., who also is charged with burglary in connection with the case, also is set at $12,000.

Police said they saw a man run from the rear door of Hagnauer's home as they arrived. They alleged finding Cobb inside and he was arrested there.

Several packages and containers of food were discovered on a patio of the home.

Hagnauer also is supervisor of Granite City Township and is chairman of the Madison County Board.

In other activities at the home, Cavalry Baptist Church hosted a religious service of singing and readings for the residents. Hymn books were donated to the home by the church.

Tri-City Temple is continuing its weekly evening sing-along at the home. This week featured youth group singing.

Several residents attended Granite City High School South to enjoy the performance of the concert band.

A Junior Girl Scout Troop led by Skip Kidman aided residents in making matchstick crosses to hang in their rooms.

A St. Patrick's Day celebration at the home began with a visit in the afternoon by the Brownie and Junior Scout Troops of St. Elizabeth School. They honored the residents with fruit, gifts, and shamrocks. They sang Irish songs to the residents and read a brief biography of St. Patrick.

Residents' families, and friends participated in the evening festivities of a St. Patrick's Day dance. Entertainment for the evening featured the Illinois Ramblers, consisting of State Collins, Ralph Mathis, and "Skinny" Cokrell. Feature of the evening was Cokrell, a ventriloquist, and his pet duck, "Leroy". Punch and green popcorn were served. Over 100 of the residents and many families attended.

The residents of the home are in need of a refrigerator and electric stove, iron and ironing board for rehabilitation purposes, to be used in the occupational therapy room.

OFFICE BURGLARIED

About $50 in cash was all that was believed stolen from Imperial Freight Lines, 2008 E. 23rd St., during a burglary Sunday. A witness saw a man get out of a car parked on East 23rd Street, break the door glass of the rear office and enter. The burglar fled when the man yelled at him.

New hospital visiting hours

A new schedule of hours for visitors at St. Elizabeth Hospital was announced this week as part of a new security program that became effective at the hospital Monday.

Regular visiting hours for most patients will be from 1 to 3 p.m. daily, but specific hours are set for some departments: Parents and grandparents only may visit the pediatrics department from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 7 p.m.

Maternity floor hours are from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m., with each patient allowed two visitors in addition to the father.

The psychiatric unit will observe hours from 1 to 3:30 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. during the week, and on Sundays and holidays from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m.

Any one entering the building for any purpose is to use either of the two main entrances, one located on Madison Avenue and the other at the back of the building adjacent to the parking lot, but not the emergency room entrance, according to Mrs. Jimmy Tuckson, director of the hospital's Public Relations Department.

Visitors, salesmen or anyone entering the building will be required to stop at the information desk at either entrance to obtain a permit card for visitation within the hospital.

No children will be admitted under the age of 12.

The new system is planned for the best interests of patient care, "to provide a safe and secure place and to give maximum care and rest to the individual during hospitalization," hospital officials said.

All doors to the hospital will be locked promptly at 9 p.m., including the emergency room door. Entry can be gained by using a bell at the door and giving proper identification.

WOUNDED KNEE

Government officials said shots fired from seized hamlet of Wounded Knee, S.D., struck an FBI auto on March 2, 1973.

East Bank Players to offer melodrama

It's show time once again in Granite City. A classic musical melodrama in rehearsal by the East Bank Players, who will present "No, No, A Million Times No!" on April 23 and 26 at the Mexican Honorary Commission Hall, 1801 Spruce St. (former Hungarian Home).

The production will be repeated on May 2 in the 300 Room of Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl. All performances will be presented in a cabaret setting with beverages and snacks served to patrons.

Curtain time for all shows is 8:15 p.m., with Jack Butterfield of Collinsville playing a musical overture celebrating the five-year anniversary show of East Bank Players.

His selection will include hit songs from each musical given by the Quad-Cities' theatrical company, starting with Guys and Dolls, which ran on the same April dates five years ago. Other hit musicals presented by the East Bank Players were "Gypsy," "Milk and Honey," "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." The musical overture for the current production, "No, No, A Million Times No!," will follow when all characters in the play will be presented in pantomime dance form.

Between acts of the three-act play, Paul Guzzardo, master of ceremonies, will introduce many old-time favorite numbers and a befeudled magician, among other cameo performances.

The melodrama is being directed by Ann Scott, with Diane E. Ripper choreographing the entire show.

Tickets will be on sale shortly and may be obtained at Mendoza Sporting Goods, YMCA, House of Stanley, Mexican Honorary Commission Club and Butterfield Jewelers in Collinsville.

Easter at Nameoki Presbyterian

Nameoki United Presbyterian Church members and friends will observe Maundy Thursday by attending a traditional sandwich and gelatin salad family dinner, followed by a celebration of the Lord's supper, the Rev. Don P. Pierson, pastor, announced.

The commemoration of communion is a reminder that the Lord's Supper was introduced following the Passover meal, the Rev. Pierson explained. Participants will adjourn later to the sanctuary, where Gary Joe Palermo will present a concert in song. The youthful tenor soloist is engaged in a ministry of sacred music throughout the country, the minister said.

Mrs. Jo Meyer 'woman of year'

Mrs. Charles (Jo) Meyer, consumer information representative for Illinois Power Company, was named "Woman of the Year" last night by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

It is the first award of its kind to be conferred by the club for many years and the first to be designated solely for a non-member.

Announcement of the winning candidate and presentation of a bouquet of American Beauty roses, a framed citation and a "Woman of the Year" gold pin were among the highlights of the annual "Public Relations Night" dinner at Charlie's Restaurant.

About 85 members and guests heard George W. Carson, a public relations director and outdoor editor, define public relations as the ability to communicate.

"It is most important now due to the climate in which it must function—among consumer groups and others.

In light of today's society we must have clear vision. Public opinion changes so rapidly that we must believe what we focus on, whether in business, club work or personal life. Public relations, after all, starts with you as an individual," Carson stressed.

Also honored at the dinner and presented "Certificate of Award" were Charlotte Edmonds of East St. Louis and Friday Evening women's editor of the Press-Record.

The "Woman of the Year" recipient was cited for "distinguishing herself in career and community."

An Illinois Power employee for 28 years, Mrs. Meyer was nominated for the honor by the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce. She is a past president of the division and a past president of the civic beautification program.

Horvat case to grand jury

The case against three youths who allegedly participated in the killing of George Horvat, 68, and the severe beating and torture of his wife, Laura, 60, a special education teacher at Wilson School, and their retarded son, Louis Joseph, 35, is expected to be presented to a St. Clair County grand jury tomorrow, officials have announced.

The three were cut, beaten, kicked and tortured for about two hours in their East St. Louis home Feb. 13 by youths who knocked on the front door and then barged in when it was opened. Mr. Horvat, a former insurance agent in Granite City, died after the incident.

SUSPECT VANDALISM

Vandalism is suspected in a fire which caused damage to a wall behind the corrugated steel siding at Madison Aluminum Foundry, 1800 Benton St., at 4:20 p.m. Saturday by two young men.

He is in Room 212 and can have visitors.

He suffered a bullet wound of the chest, piercing his necktie and departing from the right side of the back. A .38-caliber bullet was found in the west wall of the office.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR. Mrs. Jo Meyer, a past president of the Women's Division, Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, who was conferred the "woman of the year" title last evening at the Granite City Business and Professional Women's "Public Relations Night" dinner.

Youth charged in shooting

Larry D. Finley, 20, of 2800 Wayne Ave., has been charged with two counts of aggravated battery following an alleged shooting in the Lagan Lounge on U.S. Route 50 west of Trenton about 11:30 p.m. Monday.

Finley was arrested near the shooting and was taken to the St. Clair County Jail at Belleville.

Illinois State troopers were told that an argument began in the tavern and a shotgun discharged. Pellets struck the left hand and left thigh of Frederick Wagner, 18, and a leg and hand of Michael Ellis, 18, both of O'Fallon.

Wagner, a serviceman, was in good condition today in the Scott Air Force Base Hospital and Ellis was recuperating in Belleville Memorial Hospital.

Finley allegedly told troopers he dismantled the shotgun and threw the pieces in a creek near the tavern. Divers from the East Side Divers Club of Granite City were unsuccessful in attempts to recover a weapon.

Deafness 'unseen' handicap

Deafness is an unseen handicap. Mr. and Mrs. Leon (Mary Lou) Hudson told the Tuesday noon meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club in the YMCA.

Using sign language, with his wife interpreting, Hudson noted that a deaf person can not be easily recognized as deaf, which presents many different problems for the individual.

He noted that there are 15,500 adult deaf persons and 4,500 deaf children in the metropolitan area.

Sign language as a form of communication is used more than lip reading today, although several deaf persons can and do read lips, they said.

Talking loud to a person with a hearing problem does not help as the volume distorts the sound, the Kwanians were told.

Contrary to the common phrase "deaf and dumb," Hudson explained that most deaf people today are well educated and hold skilled and professional type jobs. Hudson is a jeweler with Hudson Jewelers in Granite City.

Hudson is president of the Cahokia Association for the Deaf and his wife is a learning disability instructor in the Granite City school system.

President Walter Milton announced the club will meet next Tuesday, but will participate in the Maundy Thursday luncheon to be held at the First United Presbyterian Church in Granite City.

Thomas Miller, 19, of 3225 Bluebird Lane, was injured when his motorcycle and the auto of Vera Scott, 1821 Primrose Ave., were involved in an accident at Madison Avenue and 21st Street at 10:55 a.m. Tuesday.

Vera Scott was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way. Miller was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for abrasions to his lower left leg. X-rays were taken and he was released.

CAR DAMAGED BY FIRE

Fire, caused by a carburetor backfire, caused about $25 damage to the auto of Mrs. Dorothy Boyer, 1518a Twelfth St., Madison, at 19th Street and Edison Avenue, at 3:35 p.m. Monday. Granite City firemen extinguished the flames.

State pollution board to meet in Granite City

The April 10 meeting of the Illinois Pollution Control Board will be held starting at 10 a.m. in Granite City. It was announced this week.

The PCB will meet in the courtroom of the City Hall, 200 Edison Ave., Chairman Jacob D. Dumelle said.

A public comment period will be provided in both morning and afternoon sessions.

"Persons wishing to address the board should not discuss pending cases or pending regulations or cases recently decided in which the 35-day reconsideration period has not run out," a spokesman for the state board said.

The board met March 6 in Chicago but is not meeting today because Chairman Dumelle and Dr. Russell T. Odell, a board member, are attending a non-point source water pollution conference in Monticello. Dumelle resides in Oak Park and Dr. Odell in Chicago.

Other members are Donald A. Hens of Moline and Philip Zeitlin of Chicago.

AUTOMOBILE IS STOLEN

Burglary at tavern

About $100 worth of quarters and an undetermined number of other coins were stolen during a burglary at Stiel's Tavern, 2425 N. Main St., Monday. Pledglasses in the front door were forced out to gain entry. Several barrels of beer were pulled out of the cooler under the bar, but were not taken. Drawers in the rear bar were pulled open and several empty money bags were thrown on the floor.

The Air Force was consolidated under the direction of Maj. Gen. Henry H. Arnold on March 1, 1939.

Traffic light at 20th-Iowa

An ordinance authorizing installation of an electric traffic control signal and crosswalk on 20th Street near Iowa Street was given final passage by the Granite City Council Monday night.

The ordinance was enacted after a two weeks deferral of the proposal to give council members time to study the plan. The ordinance was approved unanimously by the 13 council members present.

Installation of the traffic control signal — a pedestrian actuated light — was sought as a safety measure for pedestrians crossing 20th Street at the main employee entrance of Granite City Steel.

Cost of the installation and maintenance will be paid by the steel firm, according to the ordinance, but will be reimbursed under supervision of the city street superintendent.

Council members also approved Monday night an appropriation of $60,000 in motor fuel tax funds to finance a plan to upgrade the city's system of traffic control signs, and an appropriation of $15,000 to finance a program of striping and painting of guidelines on Both programs are directed by the City Engineering Department under the Illinois Highway Safety Code. Monroe Brewer, city engineer, said the city will advance the money for the work but will be reimbursed as much as 90 percent by the state.

A resolution increasing the salary of the city street superintendent to $17,500 per year from $16,000 also was approved. The new salary will become effective May 1 with the beginning of the new term of that office. A street superintendent is to be elected in the April 1 city election.

In addition to a $13,000 salary the street superintendent now receives $1,200 expenses which will be eliminated under the new $17,500 salary.

In other business, the council: Enacted an ordinance establishing a no parking zone on the southeast side of Edison Avenue for a distance of 190 feet south of 20th Street, and a no parking zone on the southeast side of State Street for a distance of 110 feet south of 27th Street.

Granted the Illinois Power Co. an excavation permit to install a new gas main in the alley west of Rock Road from Roosevelt Road.

Gave permission to Job's Daughters to sell candy at the First Granite City National Bank, Granite City Trust & Savings Bank and the American National Bank Friday from 4 to 7 p.m.

Kiwanians hear parole program

Brae Champ of the Illinois Department of Corrections told the Kiwanis Club Monday night that Illinois now has a total of about 3,500 men on parole, 360 of them in the Southern Illinois area and 35 to 40 of them in this immediate area.

Speaking at the Kiwanis Club meeting in Charlie's Restaurant, Champ, who now is doing field service work in the East St. Louis area, said plans are being finalized for a work release program in the Southern Illinois area.

There are about 76 Madison County men who would take part in such a program, he said. A delegation of four members of the East St. Louis Kiwanis Club were guests at the meeting and turned over the "Traveling Gavel" to the local club, the Granite City club. In turn, will give the gavel to the Breakfast Kiwanis Club.

Twenty members attended the meeting. It was announced that an executive board meeting will be held Monday prior to the regular meeting.

Student nurses backing grants

Student nurses at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have expressed their opinions about proposed legislation in letters mailed this week to U. S. Senators Adlai Stevenson III and Charles Percy (R) of Illinois.

The student nurses urged the senators to table an amendment attached to the Nurses Training Act.

The nurses feel the amendment might jeopardize passage of the bill. The Nurses Training Act provides grants and scholarships for nursing education.

"Nurses should keep abreast of laws and legislation being passed that greatly affect the profession of nursing," Mrs. Sylvia Mitchell, instructor in the SIUE School of Nursing, commented. She said nurses are encouraged to take an active part in governmental issues, educating themselves on the political process and on topics related to health care.

Big increase in armament sale—Simon

American arms sales abroad have increased 700 per cent in four years, an "irrational" policy that is harmful to the long run, says Cong. Paul Simon, D-24th Ill. Dist.

He says the figure is up from about $1 billion to $8 billion in 1970-74.

The freshman Democrat contends that the world's great need is for food and clothing, not military equipment that imperils peace.

Simon, who formerly represented the Quad-Cities in the Illinois legislature, concedes that France and the Soviet Union will sell arms if America doesn't equip foreign customers.

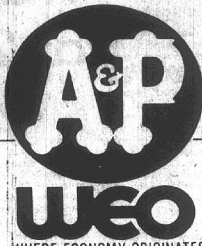

"They may," he continues, "but we should lead the way in trying to reach an agreement with weapons-exporting countries to limit sales abroad. Our leadership should be toward agreements, not weapon sales."

"We have economic problems in the United States, but they are not so bad that we should adopt irrational military sales policies that will hurt us in the long-run."

Simon says that aside from a temporary lift in balance of payments and more U. S. jobs, the limited economic impact of arms sales must be measured against four objectives.

The sales do not raise the customer's standard of living; the customers may fight each other.

Arms sales hamper American foreign policy when one nation is selected over another; and there is the danger U. S. weapons may be used against us, Cong. Simon concludes.

Tips On Cheese

When you're planning your food budget, remember to put cheese on your list. It can be the start of many delicious but inexpensive meals.

The delicious natural flavor of cheese is best maintained when the cheese is kept refrigerated and wrapped, either in the original polyfilm covering or in a plastic wrap. Should portions dry out, they can be frozen, but when thawed will often be mealy and therefore more suitable in cooking recipes.

Always remove cheese from refrigeration about one-half hour before serving to fully enjoy the delightful flavor, aroma and texture.

6% reduction in natural gas cost here proposed by Illinois Power

Illinois Power Company under an order of the Illinois Commerce Commission, has submitted a plan to roll its various natural gas rates for residential use into one common rate to apply to the entire 15,000 square-mile area served by the company in Illinois.

Ill. Power provides natural gas and electric power in the Quad-Cities.

The plan, submitted to be effective in two phases over a year period, would reduce residential gas rates for some IP residential customers, and increase rates for others.

If the commission approves the plan and the rates, the first change will be effective here May 14. The second phase is to be effective May 14, 1976.

On Feb. 13, in ordering a general gas rate increase for IP, the Illinois Commerce Commission rolled together most IP gas rates other than residential.

In the past, area gas rates have been determined by the varying costs in the areas served by the company, including the price differentials among the five pipeline companies providing the natural gas.

Illinois Power, through construction of connecting lines and underground storage, has effectively combined the gas supply in areas served by the pipeline companies.

The commission, in the Feb. 13 order, did not change any residential rates. "C. W. Wells, vice president of IP, said.

"Rather, the ICC told us to submit a plan to equalize residential rates in all areas, since we now have a unified supply situation.

"This plan will enable us to have system-wide charges for all classes of gas service after May 14, 1976."

In the May 14, 1975, phase,

60,053 customers on present Rate 50 would receive a decrease of 4.26 per cent under a new rate still numbered 50.

At that time, 119,734 customers now on Rate 52 would receive an increase of 3.14 per cent under a new Rate 51.

At the same time, 133,285 customers on present Rate 54 would receive a decrease of 6.02 per cent under the new Rate 50. This would affect the local area.

A fourth group of 4,985 customers under present Rate 56 would receive an increase of 7.56 per cent under a new Rate 52.

Phase One changes will offset each other, resulting in a zero increase for the company.

In Phase Two on May 14, 1976, further adjustment in residential rates, plus adjustments in general service rates, would be made.

Major communities under the present classifications are as follows:

Present Rate 50: La Salle, Peru, Centralia, Mt. Vernon, Greenville and Sandoy.

Present Rate 52: Galesburg,

Jacksonville, Decatur, Champaign, Urbana and Danville.

Present Rate 54: Litchfield, Belleville, Edwardsville, East St. Louis and the Granite City area.

Present Rate 56: Cambridge, Granite City PRESS-RECORD, Thurs., March 20, 1975 Page 34

Alexis, Joy and New Windsor. Commission action on the plan that the ICC ordered IP to submit is still pending.

Prepare for student advice to State Board of Education

The State Board of Education's vote to create a student advisory committee is attracting widespread interest.

Two student leaders — Kendall Christiansen of Morton and Dave Murty of Rock Island — had suggested to the board that a planning committee of seven students — representing various geographical areas of the state — be named to draft plans for a regular student advisory committee to the board.

The temporary committee, to be chosen by the Illinois Office of Education and the Illinois Association of Student Councils, is to submit its plan to the board in September.

law; To remove redundant language in the act creating the State Board of Education and to clarify provisions for its powers, duties and responsibilities.

To require local inspection of temporary school facilities yearly for the first five years; and to eliminate duplication of requirements to submit annual reports to the state.

In addition, three proposals were submitted for preliminary board consideration. These included vocational and technical education, changes in the bilingual education law, and amendments to the extraordinary special education requirements.

The board also:

— Gave final approval to its own bylaws.

— Listened to State Rep. Cal Skinner Jr. (R-Crystal Lake) who asserted that the state's refusal to equalize assessments has caused state aid to education to be "misallocated."

— Heard a presentation of the Illinois High School Association by IHSA Executive Director Harry Fitzhugh, who pledged cooperation with the State Board on athletic programs both for boys and girls.

Two treated here after accident

Richard Swift, 22, and Dexter Swift, 24, both of Brooklyn, were injured in an auto accident near East St. Louis and were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital this week. Both said they were passengers in an auto.

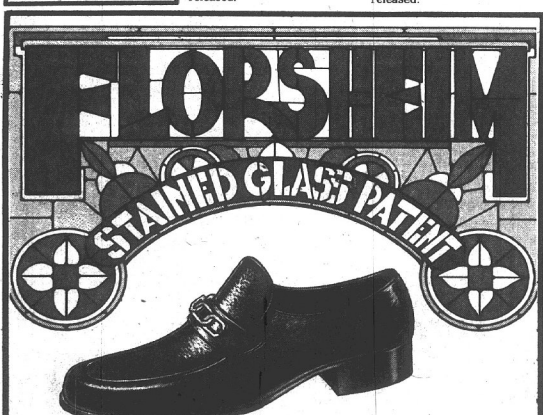

Richard Swift was admitted to the hospital with injuries to his abdomen, right side and right knee. Dexter Swift was treated for injuries to his neck, left knee and left foot. X-rays were taken and he was released.

A. O. Smith Corporation to report small loss for first quarter

A. O. Smith Corporation will report a small loss in the first quarter of the year, primarily because of the depressed economy, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, said Monday in Milwaukee.

Smith said nearly every segment of the company's business has been affected by the slowdown in the economy. While dollar sales in the first quarter are expected to be slightly higher than a year ago, Smith pointed out that unit sales in most product lines will be off sharply from the first quarter of 1974.

Four of A. O. Smith's major markets — automotive, air conditioning and refrigeration, agriculture, and construction — have been particularly hard hit by the recession.

Only the petroleum market, served by two A. O. Smith operations, was strong in the first quarter.

For the first quarter, A. O. Smith expects to lose about $500,000, or 10 cents per share, on sales of approximately $136 million.

In the first quarter of 1974, the company lost $880,000, or 18 cents per share, with sales of $134,698,000.

Smith said the company's

Automotive Division will ship only slightly fewer automobile frames in the first quarter than it did in the same period last year, when sales were depressed due to consumers turning away from larger cars because of the fear of a gasoline shortage.

Truck frame shipments this year, however, are down sharply compared with the 1974 first quarter.

Dollar sales in the division will be up slightly from a year ago because of inflation, Smith said. The Automotive Division operates an auto frame plant in Granite City.

The Automotive Division will report a loss in the first quarter, but the loss will be smaller than a year ago because of an intensive cost reduction program.

Also reporting a loss in the first quarter will be A. O. Smith Harvestore Products, Inc., a subsidiary.

Smith said that Harvestore Products, which manufactures automated feeding systems for livestock farmers, will be hurt by a decline in orders, as well as substantial going-in costs associated with a new plant which is beginning operations in the first quarter.

He also pointed out that the first quarter is normally Harvestore Products' slowest period.

Sales of residential water heaters manufactured by the Consumer Products Division are holding up well in the first quarter, considering the drop in new housing starts, Smith said.

Non-residential construction is also down, Smith noted, and this has caused a decline in sales of the company's commercial water heating equipment.

This slowdown in commercial construction, including some projects begun but then delayed, hurt profits at Armor Elevator Co. Inc., a subsidiary.

While inflation pushed dollar sales up slightly from a year ago, the subsidiary will report a small loss for the quarter.

Consumer resistance to purchasing major appliances will cause lower sales of A. O. Smith electric motors during the quarter, A. O. Smith motors are used primarily in air conditioning and refrigeration applications.

Sales of reinforced plastic pipe, manufactured by an affiliate company, and metering systems will be up substantially over a year ago because of strong demand in the petroleum market.

Profits from both these product lines also are expected to show "excellent improvement" compared with the first quarter of 1974.

A. O. Smith, with its subsidiaries, is a widely diversified manufacturer of electric motors, meter systems; auto and truck frames, agricultural feed storage and handling systems, water heater equipment, elevators and other products.

Warning on hazardous substances in homes

Governor Daniel Walker has proclaimed this as Poison Prevention Week in Illinois.

Dr. Joyce Lashof, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, is urging parents and others who care for small children to observe the week by carefully checking the home for possible sources of accidental poisoning.

"Cleaning products, furniture polish, bleaches, kerosene, gasoline, cosmetics, aspirin and other medication are among the hazardous substances that should be kept out of the reach of children and, when possible, locked up," she warned.

She continued, "Although campaigns to reduce accidental poisonings among young children have contributed to a steady decline in such deaths, approximately 6,500 Illinois children under the age of 13 were treated at the 102 official poison treatment and information centers during 1974.

"The solution to this tragic problem is the increased vigilance of all persons responsible for small children.

"I urge all citizens for Illinois to observe Poison Prevention Week by removing potentially hazardous substances from under-the-sink cabinets and other storage areas where small children can reach them."

Adviser-Home Economics
Your castoffs become other people's bargains at a garage sale. And the end result is that you have extra money and space released for other demands.

If you're considering a spring

garage sale, I offer one suggestion before you start planning: Forget that you're selling your junk. Your trash is another's treasure.

Forget the stuff in the closet is yours. View it with the hardened eye of a professional second-hand dealer.

Broken items should not be ignored. Remember, many people enjoy repairing disabled appliances and furniture.

Your "trash" may provide just the parts somebody has been looking for. The same holds true for games and snack sets.

You also need to forget what an item was made to do. For example, you icebucket with a broken lid may make somebody else a smart container for a house plant.

Don't worry if you can't think of an alternative use for an item. Somebody else probably can. And they'll pay to get it.

Garage sales have gained popularity for two reasons.
They provide people items they want and need at a reasonable price. And they help the sale-giver clean out garages and closets—at a handsome profit.

Before you begin spring cleaning, cast an eye at your "junk" and "trash"—and at perfectly good items you don't use.

All together, they may return enough to pay for special home improvements you want to make. And, at the same time, you'll expand your storage space.

No Easter chick gifts permitted

If you want to give a child a little chick or duckling this Easter, you'll have to settle for the stuffed variety.

In Illinois, it is illegal to give a live baby duck or chick as a pet, according to officials of the Illinois Department of Agriculture, which administers the Humane Care for Animals Act.

If you like your rabbits colored blue, green or pink you'll also have to settle for a doll. The same law prohibits selling rabbits or chicks which have been dyed or artificially colored.

The law says, "No persons may sell, offer for sale, barter or give away any rabbit or any baby chick, duckling or fowl, which has been dyed, colored or otherwise treated to impart an artificial color thereto."

"Baby chicks or ducklings shall not be sold, offered for sale, bartered or given away as pets or novelties."

Director of Agriculture Robert J. "Bud" Williams comments, "While I am sure people who give these little animals to children have the best of intentions, many youngsters are unable to take care of these small fowl. Children often don't understand that live animals need careful handling."

"If the animal dies from rough handling, it ends up causing the children the unnecessary sadness of losing a pet, as well as causing pain to the animal."

Williams said his Division of Meat, Poultry and Livestock Inspection will be keeping an especially watchful eye out for violations of this act during the Easter season.

Folk drummer to perform

Oswald Moses, a folk drummer of Trinidad, will present a program of songs and dances in the Dunbar school gymnasium, Third and Jackson streets, Madison at 1 p.m. Friday.

The program is free of charge and the public is invited according to Bernard Long, principal.

Moses has been touring the world for 21 years and has presented numerous concerts and seminars and has taught drumming and percussion techniques. He presently is an instructor in drumming at the Institute of Black Studies, Washington University, St. Louis.

Mrs. Polley on new township executive board

Mrs. Patricia Polley, town clerk of Chouteau Township, has been selected as that township's representative to the 24-member executive board of the new Madison County Township Officials Association.

The Chouteau Town Board of Auditors selected Mrs. Polley to represent them in the new organization. The board also approved the payment of $25 annual dues to that group.

The association was formed during a meeting March 8 at Edwardsville and is to include representatives of every township in Madison County. The Town Board deferred action on a request by Chouteau Township Highway Commissioner James Estes that his salary be increased from $6,000 to $9,000 per year. Estes was not present due to a prior commitment to attend a banquet honoring State Sen. Sam Vadalabene.

Members of the board expressed disapproval over Estes' request and over a letter he wrote to the board critical of its stand on the salary dispute. Diane Hartzel was confirmed as a new secretary for general assistance purposes, replacing Ann Eberhart who is retiring after many years in public service to the township.

Klitch was charged with violation of a red traffic light.

Dr. McAllister also is a member of the board of directors of William Woods College, a life member of the Bi-State Chapter of the American Red Cross, St. Louis, and a member of the board of directors of Webster Groves Trust Co.

He is a past president of the St. Louis Ministerial Alliance, the Missouri Council of Churches, the Metropolitan Church Federation of Greater St. Louis, the Missouri Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), and the board of directors of the Christian Church of Missouri.

He has been minister of the Webster Groves Christian Church since March 1939 and is a past minister of "The Protestant Hour," a radio and television religious program. Dr. McAllister is a member of the Masons, Scottish Rite Bodies and the Shrine, and the Phi Kappa Delta National Forensic Fraternity.

He also belongs to the Rotary Club of Webster Groves, Mo., the Algonquin Golf Club, the Missouri Athletic Club and the University Club.

Dr. McAllister was chosen in 1967 as one of ten ministers from this country to preach in the leading churches of the British Isles, and was fraternal delegate of the Christian Church in the United States to the Churches of Christ in the British Isles in August 1969.

He received the William Booth award from the Salvation Army, the organization's highest civilian award, in September 1974.

Tickets for the dinner are $3.50 per person and may be obtained by calling 451-7957, or writing to Box 338, Granite City.

UP AND OVER the outstretched hands of Timothy Christian players, Mike Henry (with the ball) fires off one of his numerous on-target shots to increase the Venice lead to 29-12 in the state Class A championship game during the weekend at Champaign. CELEBRITIES IN VENICE this weekend included Venice High School Coach Richard Essington and his wife; at the top, and Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold, seated at left, as they rode in the parade celebrating the Venice Red Devils capturing the state Class A basketball title. QUICK RECOVERY was shown by James Crowder, second from right, in the opening state tournament game against Morrisonville. This shot he took in the third quarter was batted down, but he caught the ball in the air and shot again for two points. Venice won the quarterfinal contest 47-41. (Press-Record Photo)

DIVERSIFIED OFFENSE utilized by Venice throughout the state tournament kept opponents baffled. As soon as one good shooter was well covered, the Red Devils would go to another equally deadly player. Those installed were: Alice Daniels, president; Cindy Huelketter, vice-president; Susan Petrunich, secretary; and Laura Vickers, treasurer. The guest speaker, Sister Maria DeChantel, described for members the various fields in nursing and the education needed to fulfill specific job requirements.

Others attending the event included Ingrid Knapczyk, Emily Becker, LaDonn Bissan, Marion Jackson and Rita Mennerick. The new Explorer group, sponsored by the GC hospital, meets on a semi-monthly basis. Two members Rosie Gardner and Toni Jackson, were unable to attend the banquet.

Seminar for nurses

Hypertension will be the subject of discussion at a series of two-day seminars which the School of Nursing of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will sponsor in April and May for nurses in Downstate Illinois who wish to upgrade their professional nursing skills.

The seminars, a part of the university's continuing education program for nurses, will be held in four different locations.

Sessions will be held on the SIUE campus April 1 and 8; at the Jacksonville State Hospital in Jacksonville, April 3 and 10; in Flora on April 17 and 24 (meeting place to be announced); and at Chester Memorial Hospital in Chester, May 1 and 8. Seminars will begin each day at 8:30 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m.

Registration will be $10 for the two-day sessions. Deadline for registration will be: SIUE, March 25; Jacksonville, March 27; Flora, April 10; and Chester, April 24.

The purpose of the seminars is to make the professional nurse aware of the total needs of people with abnormal blood pressure, including physical, emotional and economic factors, according to Ina Ingwersen, director of continuing education in the School of Nursing.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting the School of Nursing, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville.

Non-degree admissions plan created at SIUE

A non-degree admissions category has been established at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for retired businessmen, housewives and others within the community who wish to take classes at the university purely for their own enrichment.

Robert Bruker, director of admissions and Records, said, "The non-degree category will make it easier for mature students to enter the university."

"They can avoid the time-consuming tasks of sending away for high school and college transcripts or taking college entrance examinations."

"They don't have to wait. They can walk right into the office and be admitted," Gene Magac, assistant director of admissions, said.

The only document necessary for admission as a non-degree student is an application.

If a student in this category decides to work toward a degree at a later date, it will be necessary to follow admissions procedures outlined in the undergraduate catalog.

Credits earned as non-degree students are not applicable toward a graduate degree, Bruker said. Non-degree students will not be permitted to enroll in 500-level courses. Students in the non-degree category also will not be allowed to enroll in 400-level courses except with written permission from their instructors.

Applications are available in the Office of Admissions and Records. Additional information may be obtained at 692-2720 or from the admissions office.

Woman, 84, is injured

Mrs. Josephine Hoelscher, 84, of 2412 Anchorage Homes, was injured when her auto went out of control and struck a tree and a house at 2:05 p.m. Monday. Witnesses said Mrs. Hoelscher's auto was northbound on Nameoki Road and drove around four cones protecting wet concrete at a manhole near the intersection of Nameoki Road and St. Clair Avenue.

The auto was returning to the left lane when it went out of control, crossed the oncoming lanes and hit a tree in front of Lukert Germaics, 3550 Iowa St. The car then continued into the basement wall and the side of the house of George Scrum, 3048 Iowa St., where it came to rest.

Mrs. Hoelscher was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted with a cut to her chin.

County's rough transition to computerized tax system hampered by unexpected delays, lack of coordination

Computerization is not without flaws, as all enterprises that have adapted to it are well aware. But most of the "bugs" can be resolved, and the changeover to data processing methods has proven to be a tremendous labor-saver and time-saver for business firms and many governmental agencies.

This being the case, it was inevitable and logical that the government of Madison County would follow the trend. Unfortunately, it has been a rocky transition, particularly in regard to the taxing process.

Distribution of taxes collected by the county to municipalities, schools, parks, townships and other governmental entities has been painfully slow and is not expected to be completed until June, when the next year's collecting cycle traditionally starts.

All taxing bodies have had to make do with less money than originally projected, and some have had to resort to costly borrowing through issuance of tax anticipation warrants.

The taxation "disaster" that has developed was debated at the Courthouse at a meeting of elected officials and board members, the county's data processing department, the central services committee and representatives of the company that contracted to establish the new system.

There was sharp disagreement over who has been at fault, but all agreed that taxpayers and citizens have been the losers, and that local-level agencies have been put through an awkward, unexpected squeeze in performing their duties during the 1974-75 fiscal year.

Determination of taxes to be distributed now has been carried out manually by the treasurer's staff, which has never received the due-in-October distribution report and list of paid receipts.

The yearly delinquent tax property sale usually held in December ber meanwhile has been set for April 21. Over $2 million remains owed to taxing bodies, and final settlements are still at least two and a half months away from completion.

In view of the problems cited, $42,000 is being withheld for the time being from the company, whose contract has run out after a one-year extension.

The county will attempt to take over the sending of the new tax year's bills, and the former contractor will provide some aid in setting up the format for them and in programming for assessor and collector books.

Whether new difficulties will be encountered as the next cycle is begun is anybody's guess. The general hope is that the procedure will function well—and faster than ever before—but the public will retain some skepticism until it is accomplished.

The subject brings up a related matter which perhaps justifies study—whether some form of basic county governmental reorganization is needed.

The current system of "checks and balances" creates a county legislative body elected from districts and also a number of officials elected countywide to fulfill specific duties.

County Clerk Evelyn Bowles commented at last week's tax meeting that the data processing contract resulted from board members "entering into an agreement when they didn't know what they were talking about." Heads of two offices directly affected—treasurer and clerk—were "never consulted," she asserted.

Division of responsibilities to provide a balance against excessive governmental power has much to recommend it. But in this instance, there was an absence of effective coordination, and the divided system served Madison County poorly.

State championship in 1975 will be long remembered by Venice and its talented school basketball team

State basketball championships in Illinois are a rarity because of the intensity of the competition in this state—and because the "sudden death" nature of the long tournament series poses a difficult test for even the greatest of high school teams.

Venice will long remember its state Class A championship of 1975, even if there are repeat titles in future years.

This season's championship is the first for Venice, and it will remain a cherished memory for the talented players, coaches, fellow students and the entire community and region.

A municipality for more than a century, Venice is "on the map" of Illinois more prominently now than ever before, due to the effort and skill of its basketball squad, whose overall record for 1974-75 is a sparkling 32 wins out of 34 games.

Names that come to the fore are Coach Richard Essington and such players as James Turner, Mike Henry, Reggie Gardner, Jeff Corrie, James Crowder, Mike Logan and Jeff Crawford. Many others contributed to the team's performance, and the support of school officials, faculty members, parents and fans also was of considerable importance.

The drive for statewide athletic acclaim is at best a fragile one because of the many pitfalls that can beset a team. But the Red Devils of Venice High School have made it a reality and can proudly say, "We're Number One!", throughout Illinois. Truly they are champions.

Drug abuse pattern still changing

Little more than one year ago, in January 1974, there was evidence of a downturn in heroin addiction in the United States.

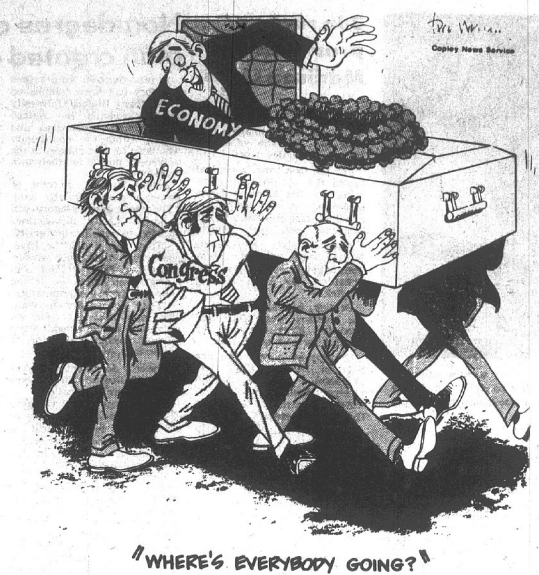

This was due in part to efforts of Federal, State, and local agencies in making treatment services available to any addict who wants them, to prevention programs, and to more effective enforcement of drug laws nationwide.

Another factor seemed to be that the supply of heroin had been reduced. The reduction came about partly as a result of negotiations with Turkey which led to that country's decision, recently reversed, to ban cultivation of the opium poppy from which heroin is derived.

But now, all the indicators of heroin use and addiction, which had been going down steadily for 2 or 3 years, are turning up again or at least are predicated steady.

"We can no longer talk confidently of having turned the corner on heroin production," said Dr. Robert L. DuPont, Director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse, a part of HEW's Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration, in telling a congressional committee in October 1974 that we are still far from winning the war against drugs.

"I think the most important lesson we have learned in the past 3 years is that drug abuse is a constantly changing phenomenon," Dr. DuPont said. "For instance, in recent months, we have become aware of a very important phenomenon: an unexpected increase in heroin addiction in some smaller cities. Sample cities where this has occurred are Eugene, Oregon; Des Moines, Iowa; and Jackson, Mississippi. This has led us to speculate that drug use is spreading out from the major population centers and can be expected to continue to spread in some rural areas, after a period of relative stability."

The FORUM

Official has aided yearly clean-up

To the Editor:

I favor re-electing Lionel Portell as superintendent of streets.

His qualifications, experience and past performance entitle him to be re-elected. Mr. Portell has shown professionalism, expertise and dedication in his responsibilities.

I asked Mr. Portell for his help in our area in a clean-up program this past year. Granite City Street Department employees volunteered their time, and city trucks were furnished on Saturday to help us.

We appreciate his help and would encourage residents to group together and continue this annual program. I know you have Mr. Portell's full cooperation.

Candidate an experienced engineer

To the Editor:

On April 1, voters of the Fourth Ward will be faced with the responsibility of electing an alderman to serve this ward for a term of four years.

I feel that in the modern day of inflationary times, we should give this election our utmost attention for many reasons.

We have never before been faced with as many problems as we are now encountering, nor has there ever been a time when it cost so much to run a city such as ours.

qualified people available to deal with these problems sensibly, economically and thoroughly for the best interest of all.

I am a 50-year resident of Granite City.

I feel that we have a candidate available in this election that will be of great value to this ward and also for the city. I am highly recommending Mr. Warren Decatur for this office because I feel he has the best qualifications.

I have known Mr. Decatur for about 12 years. His educational background along with many years of experience in engineering could be invaluable when dealing with existing problems.

I know he will be an active alderman.

Residents' problems will also be his problems in such areas as drainage sewers, etc. Above all else the thing that impresses me most is his desire to be a public servant.

Let's elect a good man to represent us on the City Council — a man who will work for us tirelessly, a man who will make sure we are heard.

HOWARD W. BOLTON
3160 Aubrey Ave.

Says told to remove campaign sign

To the Editor:

I am really dumbfounded. How far will people go for politics?

We have a sign for James Stuart in our yard.

He's running for alderman in the First Ward; we live in the Third Ward.

Stuart's opponent, Alderman Morien, approached my husband and asked him about the sign.

My husband told him that Jim Stuart was a friend, and we put the sign for him for his benefit.

Morien said it would be to our best interest to remove the sign.

We are planning to put a mobile home on our lot, but Mr.

Morien implied that we should remove the sign if we wanted the mobile home on the lot.

Then he made a remark about my having worked for him in the last election.

I thought the man was more interested in government than to stoop to tell a person what signs he can have in his yard.

My husband told him that we would even put a stop to our putting our mobile home on our lot. I don't like anyone telling me what I can or can't do, as far as politics are concerned.

I worked for him, but no more, as I don't go along with his way of doing things, and I didn't know that he was that type of person.

I don't believe that he could represent the people of Ward One fairly and objectively; after all, our representatives should represent all of the people.

We sure don't need a situation in our city as we had in the federal government.

All I can say is that I'm glad I live where I do, and have friends like the Stuarts. Also, I can state my opinions so other can read about our politicians' actions.

MRS. RUTH BUNKER

Fans congratulate new state champs

To the Editor:

We would like to congratulate the state champion Venice Red Devils on their victories in Champaign.

We cannot understand why

Venice cannot have a cheering section as the other schools do.

It seems the Venice students are not able to get their seats together.

This was very noticeable at the sectional, super-sectional, and state tournament games.

We should not have to accept such seating procedures.

Competition in Madison's 3rd Ward

To the Editor:

As a resident and voter in the Third Ward of Madison, I am gratified to see the independence and diversity of the upcoming aldermanic race.

It has been some time since the residents of the Third Ward have been offered such an array of candidates.

Noteworthy is the fact that none of the candidates is endorsed by any political faction other than the individual voter.

The door-to-door campaign, being conducted by a number of the candidates, lends a healthy atmosphere to the sometimes cliché-ridden politics that have existed in Madison.

To question the candidates' platform and seek solutions to some of the problems, in the ward is very conducive to the sound politics that so many voters now seek.

Selectivity and objectivity, are adjectives that have at times been foreign to Third Ward residents.

Now, we are being offered a choice—distinctively and independently.

Third Ward voters and residents, let us take advantage of selectivity: vote your conscience, and vote your candidate.

So, candidates, let's keep in mind that performance means incumbency, and performance is directly needed in the Third Ward.

Fear link between politics and courts

Comment

Telegraph—now not to keep partisan politics out of the judicial system is illustrated by two developments in Madison County in the last month.

Most recent is appointment of a Collinsville Democratic precinct committeeman, James W. Wask, 23, as administrator of the Third Judicial District Circuit Court.

Several weeks ago, longtime court Democratic Chairman Walter "Cluck" Simmons, who is clerk of the Fifth Appellate Court in Mt. Vernon, left the party chairmanship.

Both have announced their resignations from the party positions to satisfy current regulations attempting to divorce partisan politics from the court system.

In our own estimation, a better way to effect this separation would be to avoid appointment of obviously partisan leaders.

It is one thing to separate an appointee from a party job. It is yet another to get the partisan politics out of his thinking and approach to procedure.

It takes a lot of dedication to become a successful party leader at any level. We certainly shouldn't tell these people short.

But the question arises: How much of this dedication can be required in the judicial system? Is he blessed by appointment to a highly dignified and sensitive post in a judicial system which the entire state twice sought to divorce from the partisan considerations?

Progress on Alaska oil...

By JAMES CARY

WASHINGTON — The United States is finally moving with unaccustomed swiftness toward major development of the oil riches locked in the frigid splendor of Alaska's mountains, frozen plains and offshore areas.

The first oil is now expected to start gushing down the trans-Alaska pipeline in mid-1977 and increase quickly in volume to an expected early delivery of 1.2 million to 1.4 million barrels per day.

And even this vastly improved prospect is only a beginning.

Within two years after the pipeline oil begins to flow, from Prudhoe Bay in the north to Valdez in the south, a second pipeline should be well under construction to start natural gas on its way to the United States.

After that the rate and location of subsequent development are open to speculation, but the prospects are both dramatic and imminent.

They include already announced plans to build a $500 million liquefied natural gas plant on the Kenai peninsula, Alaska perhaps up to four more oil pipelines if more of Alaska's potential oil fields develop.

All, Alaska has 10 sedimentary basins believed to hold 76.1 billion barrels of recoverable oil — 28.4 billion of it onshore and 47.7 billion offshore — plus 439.7 trillion cubic feet of recoverable gas.

The principal oil fields include Cook Inlet on the southern coast, Prudhoe Bay on Alaska's North Slope in the Arctic Ocean, the remaining of the North Slope, Naval Petroleum Reserve 4 or "Pet 4" immediately to the west, the lower Cook Inlet and perhaps seven or more potential areas on the outer continental shelf.

The most promising of the sites are in the Gulf of Alaska off the southern coast, Bristol Bay to the west and the offshore areas of the Bering Sea.

Of the oil fields two have producing wells. One, Cook Inlet, has been in production since 1969. It now yields somewhat less than 500,000 barrels daily. The other, Prudhoe Bay, was the site of a rich strike by Atlantic Richfield in 1968. Extensive exploration there indicates a potential of 9.6 billion barrels of oil.

It is this oil that will be fed into the trans-Alaska pipeline when it is completed.

The next area most likely to have producing wells is the Gulf of Alaska, where a major sale of offshore leases is scheduled by the Interior Department this fall. Controversy over the environmental impact, however, could delay development. Leasing in Bristol Bay and the Bering Sea would follow.

But of all Alaska's oil deposits the least is known about the one with probably the greatest potential — Pet 4. The Defense Department sank 37 test wells there during World War II, turning up promising geological formations. An additional exploratory program is under way now under Naval contract. Up to 15 billion barrels of recoverable oil are believed to have been located.

Ultimately, if this potential becomes reality, the present trans-Alaska pipeline will be inefficient to handle the oil produced at both Prudhoe Bay and Pet 4.

There is talk, but only talk so far, of building a second line paralleling the line now under construction and doubling its full capacity from two million to four million barrels daily.

... but oil shale being hampered

By JEFFREY ST. JOHN

EL DORADO, Ark. — "The United States," asserted Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger on Feb. 3, "is one of the few nations in the world that depend on foreign oil was dangerous. The federal government, however, encouraged foreign oil exploration at the expense of domestic development, blocking the building of refineries in the United States and delaying the oil pipeline for Alaska.

In 1972 it became a subsidiary of The Oil Shale Corp. (Tosco) of Los Angeles. Tosco, like other major petroleum companies, had been warning the federal government since the early 1960s of the danger that dependence on foreign oil was dangerous. The federal government, however, encouraged foreign oil exploration at the expense of domestic development, blocking the building of refineries in the United States and delaying the oil pipeline for Alaska.

After the Arab oil embargo of October, 1973, the United States paid a huge price for prohibiting development of resources because of political considerations.

Now in 1975 the U.S. government stands guilty of creating still one more shabby scandal when it comes to the development of shale oil.

February 1974, Tosco joined with other companies like Atlantic Richfield, Ashland Oil and Shell to begin shale exploration in western Colorado near Grand Junction. This was in the midst of the Arab oil embargo.

The steps that Kissinger proposed leave considerable doubt that this goal will be achieved in the next decade. His appearance as a speaker before the National Press Club in Washington, D.C., was curious in that no earlier in the question-and-answer period asked Kissinger two questions:

Now in 1975 the U.S. government stands guilty of creating still one more shabby scandal when it comes to the development of shale oil.

February 1974, Tosco joined with other companies like Atlantic Richfield, Ashland Oil and Shell to begin shale exploration in western Colorado near Grand Junction. This was in the midst of the Arab oil embargo.

Asking those two questions from this town on the Arkansas-Louisiana border might seem strange. Unless, of course, you are aware that it was here in El Dorado (Spanish for City of Gold) that one of the great oil or black gold fields was discovered in 1921 and by 1925 was producing 77 million barrels of oil a year.

However, in October of last year the four companies announced they were suspending operations. The reasons are revealing and go to the root of our energy shortage. Three reasons were given: government fostered double-digit inflation, tight money, and contradictory federal regulations governing energy.

First, that the worldwide petroleum industry, founded, created, and built in the United States. Second, it was largely the creation of private capital, not government tax dollars. Today, overseas and here at home, governments are either selling private oil companies in the name of national sovereignty, or play a greater role in regulating the industry. Kissinger's statement of Feb. 3 seems prepared to let that continue in even greater degree.

When the 1921 El Dorado oil strike took place, the Lion Oil Co. was founded here.

Thus, with its wrongheadedness in international policy, presided over by Kissinger, and apparently pressure groups like the environmentalists at home (the Alaskan pipeline delay is one example), the energy crisis is solely a government-created problem. Now in 1975 Kissinger is spending $100 million a day from synthetic fuels like shale, but the same blind belief in government fostered double-digit inflation, tight money, and contradictory federal regulations governing energy.

Charles Kelly discussed insurance offered through national AARP membership.

Mrs. Grace Paddock said the Senior Citizens Fair will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, March 28, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Additional volunteers are needed for the combined senior-youth action group, known as the Generation Alliance Program (GAP). Mrs. Wortman reported.

Eighty-five members planning to attend the Russ David program on Friday were advised to meet at 9:45 a.m. at the Senior Center. Mrs. Law advised.

Volunteers also are being sought for summer projects at the library, schools and playgrounds, she said. Those wishing to participate were asked to contact Mrs. Norma Mendoza at the Tri-City Area YMCA.

For their voluntary service in the new food budget program, Mrs. Paddock commended Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen.

Mrs. Pat Shable led the group in games assisted by Mrs. Candler, Mrs. Wright and Judy Miller, and Mrs. Vee Thorne directed a songfest and exhibited craftwork, pertaining to nature and ecology.

The Cub Scout Theme Fair will be held April 19 at St. Margaret Mary Church from 2 to 4 p.m., Mrs. Thorne reported. She urged all leaders to attend and view the monthly theme displays.

"Naturalist," the Webelos theme, was reviewed by Mrs. Buford, who said visits to the Museum of Natural History and Sciences could be taken as part of the activity.

Beautification plans for the Madison County nature trail, which starts at Lake Drive in Pontoon Beach and continues to SIUE, was discussed by Mrs. Kohl of the Gardenaires Garden Club.

Disability pay for pregnancy voted in state

Granting of disability pay for pregnant females and approval of minority hiring quotas in the Peoria area construction industry were among the decisions rendered by the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission at its late winter two-day meeting in Rockford.

In keeping with its plan to foster community understanding through on-the-road meetings, the commissioners and administrative staff of the FEPC chose Rockford for the first road meeting of 1975. Usually held in the central office in Chicago, the sessions are now taken to cities around the state at least once every three months.

Reports of activity regarding each facet of the commission's operation are made to the commissioners and staff in an open forum which provides for public participation through scheduled question and answer periods. Executive Director Mel F. Jordan and division directors earlier met with the Rockford Area Chamber of Commerce Industrial Relations and Economic Affairs Committee to discuss the FEPC and its relationship with the business community.

Following the meeting, Jordan held a news conference where he commented on the Labor-Management Hot-Line, a programmatic effort of the FEPC to "help stem the tide of employee layoffs, particularly of minorities and females, during the economic slump."

Jordan urged the City of Rockford to adopt an equal employment ordinance that has provisions for enforcement. "While Rockford has a good plan," Jordan said, "we find it critically lacking in enforcement provisions."

He further suggested that the Rockford City Council develop a model ordinance similar to that currently in effect in Peoria and other Illinois cities. Keeping to a fast schedule, the FEPC directors left the chamber offices and went to the opening noon session of the commission in the City Hall council chambers.

There they met with Susan M. Bezucha, FEPC acting chairperson, and Commissioners Wallace Hill, Thomas McCracken and Alfred Whitley. It was during this session that the commission ruled that pregnant women should receive disability pay.

The FEPC position on maternity benefits came through a series of decisions on individual complaints before the commission. It had previously deferred a decision on these matters pending the outcome of several court cases on the subject.

Jordan said, "The commission's rationale is that pregnancy is a temporary disability, more predictable than most in fact. You can time it, and can time its recovery period, which you can't do with a broken leg or sprained back."

Within several days after the FEPC decision, a Pittsburgh judge of the U. S. 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals ruled similarly. The Appeals Court ruled that private employers cannot exclude pregnancy benefits for income protection plans because that would discriminate against women.

The court said, "Pregnancy is no different from any other temporary disability" and "... since pregnancy is a disability common only to women, to treat it differently by applying a separate leave policy is sex discrimination."

The commission also heard testimony from concerned individuals and groups from the Peoria area regarding a proposed plan to increase minorities in the Peoria trade unions to a 6.5 per cent level.

Known as the Peoria Plan, the proposal supported by 13 signatory construction unions is an effort to raise the level of minority construction workers from its present 5 per cent to 6.5 per cent across-the-board representation in all trades.

Testifying on behalf of the plan were representatives of two Peoria-based minority groups, the Urban League and the Construction Action Committee. Speaking against the plan was John Gwynn, state president of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People and president of the Peoria NAACP chapter.

Following the testimony and after deliberation, the FEPC unanimously approved the plan with the following recommendation:

Maintenance of a 6.5 per cent level over the next 4½ years, review of the plan following the 1980 census to adjust the percentage level up or down, and monitoring of the plan on a monthly basis to assure the 6.5 per cent minority level in all trade unions.

The action places Rockford area contractors under more stringent minority-hiring standards.

Director Jordan said the contractors will face job-to-job compliance checks this season unless a Rockford hiring plan is approved by the state.

Under job-to-job compliance requirements, individual contractors must agree to use a specific number of minority workers for each public-funded job they seek as part of their bid and contract conditions. By a unanimously adopted motion, the FEPC resolved to urge the mayor and council to consider and adopt an ordinance to ensure equal employment opportunity compliance on the part of city contractors and vendors, and to establish the authority of the Equal Employment Opportunity Department to enforce the program, receive complaints of job discrimination and enforce the city's affirmative action plan.
